

Welcome

This documentation site is for is for the person installing, managing and using CS Time.

It is still in its toddler phase, but we'll keep on updating it to give our CS Time users as much information as possible.

New to CS Time?

We suggest you have a look at the documents under Installing CS Time, Quick Start. There are instructions on how to quickly add your employees in order to get them clocking, as well as instructions around the basics of using CS Time.
